FOR JUSTICE-IMPACTED JOBSEEKERS

FAIR CHANCE FOR A FRESH START: KNOW YOUR NEW RIGHTS AS A JUSTICE-IMPACTED JOBSEEKER

The Los Angeles County Fair Chance Ordinance ensures equitable hiring practices, providing people with a criminal history an opportunity to look for work in LA County without discrimination.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Understanding Your New Rights: Learn how the Fair Chance Ordinance protects you from discrimination based on your criminal history during the hiring process.

Know the Employer's Responsibilities: Discover what employers are required to do before considering your criminal background during hiring decisions.

What to Do if Your Rights Are Violated: Know who has your back if you believe an employer has unlawfully considered your criminal record.

Where to Get Resources & Support: Find out about local resources and organizations that can help you navigate employment opportunities and legal support
